

TINDHÓLMUR

The sleeping dragon

Exclusive excursion to the islet Tindhólmur. The journey starts at Sørvágur port. After sailing for 15 minutes and passing Drangarnir, you will arrive at Tindhólmur. Here you will get a guided tour around the islet and its beautiful scenery. Like on the island Mykines, puffins breed on the islet, which means you will be able to go bird watching. Afterwards you will be you will get the chance to rappell off of the south side of Tindhólmur. We end the trip with the opportunity for some lake swimming in one of the most beautiful surroundings the Faroe Islands have to offer and enjoy a lunchpack and some refreshments.

ACTIVITIES

BOATSEEING

Get a unique perspective of the cliffs and birdlife around Tindhólmur. We will sail close to - and through if the weather allows it - the two seastacks called Drangarnir.

RAPPELLING

Come and rappel in one of the most beautiful nature the Faroe Islands have to offer. The difficulty can be adjusted according to the wanted challenge. Either way you will get an unforgettable experience and unique view of the islet.

Difficulty: Easy to moderate

LAKE SWIMMING

Take a refreshing plunge in to our swimmingpool of Tindhólmur - faroese style! Furthermore you will get the opportunity to do some cliff jumping from various hights; ranging from 1 meter up to 10 meters. Afterwards you will be able to enjoy a cold faroese beer and the surrounding nature.

Difficulty: Easy

Trip info

- Duration: 5-7 hours
- Difficulty: Easy
- Capacity: 30
- Gear: Hiking and swimming clothes
- Plan B: If the weather or other circumstances will inhibit us in making the trip to Tindhólmur our plan-B will be an adventure tour to Hoyíkin which is an old cosy farm settlement only 5 minutes from Tórshavn.